

ÖKK COLLECTIVE PRO

Information for employees when leaving a company

Are you leaving Switzerland?

You should find out about the available insurance options in your new country of residence. If you are moving to an EU/EFTA state, you will still be required to have insurance in Switzerland if you continue to earn your income solely in Switzerland.

31 December. Notice of termination must have been received by ÖKK by no later than the end of November. There may be no payments outstanding. To find out if it is possible to terminate the insurance as at 30 June under certain conditions, please contact ÖKK.

Are you remaining in Switzerland?

All people who are resident in Switzerland are still required to have insurance in Switzerland. If you continue to live in Switzerland after your contract of employment ends, you will remain insured with ÖKK under your current insurance cover in accordance with the Swiss Health Insurance Act (KVG). You will be transferred to ÖKK's individual insurance or to a collective contract of your new employer if they are insured with ÖKK. It is possible to terminate the basic insurance policy as at

Please complete the form if you will continue to live in Switzerland or are moving to an EU/EFTA state and continuing to work in Switzerland.

For more information or an individual consultation, please contact your ÖKK agency. We will be happy to help.
